Venue	: Virtual Mode (Google Meet)

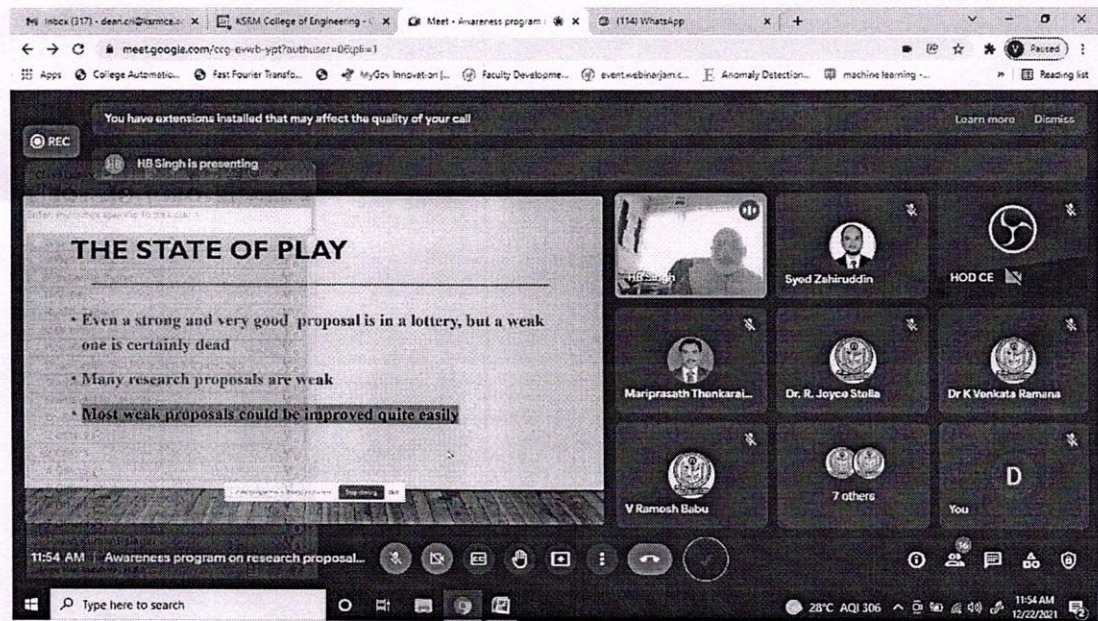

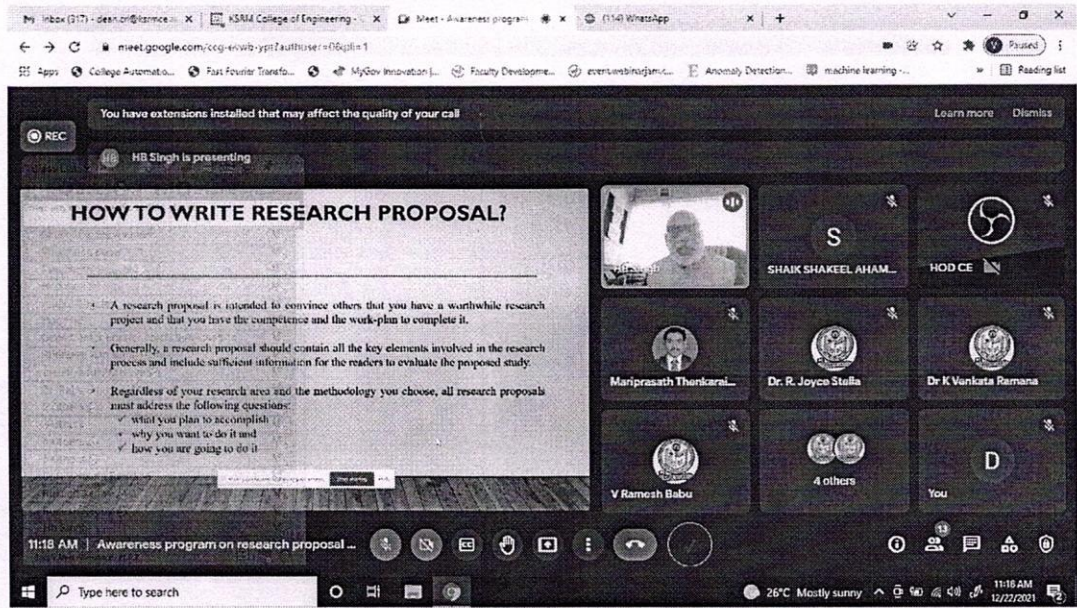

Description:

Centre for Research and Innovation conducted an awareness program on “How to write an effective Research Proposal” online on 22-12-2021 from 11.00 PM to 12.30 PM. Dr. H.B. Singh, retired senior scientist, panel member of various funding agencies, delivered a lecture on the above topic. More than 25 faculty with a doctorate participated in this meet. He shared his experience with participants, such as how to clear the proposal in various stages of proposal scrutiny. He explained the content of a research proposal clearly. He assured us to review the prepared proposals before the submission. Faculty can utilize this opportunity to get research grants.
