Description

Gender equality, we face this issue head on by protecting girls from female genital mutilation, making sure they have the same educational opportunities as their male counterparts, and raising a generation of young men to respect women. We believe that everyone is equal in the eyes of God. And that he never meant us to live in a world with such harsh inequality. We work in countries where societies often treat women as second-class citizens. Our work in these countries seeks to combat this mentality. The girls attend school and dream of future careers that aren't affected by their gender. But gender equality is something that men have to be sold on as well, we believe that wholeheartedly. It's vital for men to believe in this equality in order for belief systems to shift. gender equality is something that men should want to believe in, because it benefits everyone. The countries that have the most equality score highest on the happiness scales. Countries with greater gender equality are usually more economically successful. Educated, working women are great economic assets. There's also evidence that companies that have greater gender equality tend to be better places to work. gender equality is in the best interest of countries, companies and men.
